MPCTC UPDATE

I wanted to take this opportunity to inform our partner organizations of some important, recent changes here at the Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commissions. These include the relocation of our Advanced and Specialized Training (AST) Unit to the Governor's Office of Crime Control and Prevention (GOCCP), the re-design of our Executive Development Institute (EDI), and the introduction of some exciting, new international programs.

Our AST unit, that supports the training for the CSAFE programs as well as other training initiatives, has moved to the offices of GOCCP. This move will allow the dedicated staff of AST to expand the training they provide and support CSAFE, Violence Prevention Initiatives, and other training needs such as DASHBOARD training with facial recognition software programs. The dynamic nature of the ever-increasing instructional opportunities available to state public safety professionals necessitates the availability and accessibility of training to maximize the potential value of those resources. Moving AST to GOCCP will enhance the unit's capacity to provide more training and will link them more closely with important initiatives that many agencies are or will be engaged in.

The re-design of EDI, to be known as the Leadership Development Institute (LDI), is another dynamic change. We are currently reviewing all of our programs to determine core objectives and evaluate delivery methods. Our plans to enlarge the institute will include the provision of more multi-tiered training programs to aid students in mapping both training and career planning to help them achieve their career goals. It will also provide a single location where quality programs can be offered to multiple agencies at a lower cost. LDI will provide training, particularly at the executive level, that is typically quite costly to obtain, and, therefore, likely to be limited to a small number of participants. This change will not supplant anything that currently exists; rather, it will supplement and broaden the scope of training where little currently exists. We plan to reach out to our partner agencies to identify dynamic instructors who can bring high quality instruction to the programs we will offer. I will keep you updated on this work-in-progress.

Finally, we have been partnering with the United States Department of State to offer training for corrections professionals. Our recent group came from the Republic of Georgia, and they participated in a two-week course on Parole and Probation.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTE (LDI)

by Sue McGee, Administrator

Making its official debut on July 1, 2011, the Leadership Development Institute (LDI) will encompass the programs formerly provided by the PCTC Executive Development Institute and the PDTD Executive and Leadership Development Unit and Administrative Support Staff Training. In addition, the PCTC First Line Supervisor and Administrator Programs will likewise be administered by LDI. Members of LDI are proud to share their mission, vision, guiding principles, goals, and objectives.

- Mission statement: To provide and promote exceptional customer-focused leadership development for public safety professionals.

- Vision: The LDI is a nationally recognized organization committed to facilitating and advocating for relevant life-long learning dedicated to effective leadership.

- Guiding Principles:

1. To focus on leadership development with actions and relationships based on the uncompromising values of mutual respect and support, reliability, honesty, accountability, quality, integrity, and trust.
2. To promote and enhance lifelong learning.
3. To value a safe and supportive learning environment with respect for diverse talents, perspectives, and learning styles.
4. To assure that program content is supported by research and guided by recognized best practices in leadership development.
5. To progressively refine programs and methods through ongoing objective assessments and feedback.

- Goals:

1. To support the development and implementation of high-quality leadership training programs to assist the public safety community in creating effective leaders.
2. To engage representatives from the public and private sectors, including higher education, in an ongoing exchange of ideas and activities that will support the mission of the LDI. To that end, LDI will:

- a. create an Advisory Board
- b. create Roundtables
- c. create a Foundation.

3. To manage programs in a fiscally responsible and accountable manner.

- Objectives:

1. To present leadership training that effectively meets the evolving needs of the public safety community.
2. To provide periodic, objective formal and informal training needs assessments for our partner agencies and to identify current and ongoing training needs, in order to determine the most effective and efficient methods to meet those needs.
3. To maintain and strengthen relations with our current partner organizations in the public and private sectors and to promote and facilitate ongoing collaborations, coordination, cooperation, and communication.
4. To develop new relationships/partnerships in both the private and public sectors and foster these relations to expand program delivery and financial resources.
5. To continue to develop and increase the number of quality leadership topics and programs in emergent areas of public safety.

LDI will be responsible for the design, delivery, and coordination of presentations focused on helping to advance selected individuals into the role of a supervisor and onward to the highest executive level. Similarly, support staff will be given opportunities to increase their knowledge and improve their skill level with an eye toward upward mobility and promotion.

In addition to promoting and presenting quality training, members of LDI will be available to consult on organizational development issues and succession planning.

In January 2011, Michael A. Jackson was appointed as LDI's Program Director. Other members of LDI staff are:

- Terry Satterfield, Administrator
- Sue McGee, Administrator
- Phyllis Mills-Greene, Administrator
- Michael Edwards, Program Coordinator
- Pam Genco, Program Coordinator
- Michael Palmer, Program Coordinator
- Archie Cook, Program Coordinator
- Jeanne Chenoweth, Administrative Assistant

MPCTC UPDATE

They learned about our parole and probation system and how to implement a parole system, and each participant came away with a country-specific plan that improves on the currently-existing model. By focusing on our methods and how best to convey them to groups unfamiliar with our bureaucracy, our staff will be able to identify ways in which to improve upon what we practice and teach. If anyone has an interest in assisting with these programs or in finding out more about this initiative, please contact us.

Have a safe summer and mark your calendars for our Annual Instructors' Conference on Thursday, October 13, 2011.

CORRECTIONS CONNECTION

by Jane Sachs, Administrator

Most people think of the Academy as the major component of entry level training for new correctional staff but in reality, it is only one piece of the equation. The Field Training element, where the agency or facility sets the internal standards for the new employee, is as important as or more so than what is taught in the Academy. Where that is the case, the Field Training Officer (FTO) becomes integral to the training and, oftentimes, a very significant person in the life of the new staff member.

A good Field Training program and/or FTO can make a huge difference in the success of a new correctional staff person. For that reason, it is critically important to choose the absolute best staff to fill the FTO and CELTP trainer roles. Maintaining sub-standard staff beyond their probationary period can negatively impact the entire agency, and can, as we have all too well learned in the past, cause major destruction.

Careful screening and selection of FTOs is worth every painstaking minute that it takes. There is nothing more devastating to a department than "bad personnel," and the best way to avoid that is to put the energy, time, and people power into ensuring that you have selected quality people at the outset. Choose your FTOs well, treat them well, and listen to them. Many agencies/departments cannot or do not compensate their FTOs monetarily but rather do so in other ways such as public acknowledgment, special parking, special pins/badges, etc. These things matter and are definitely appreciated.

The use of mentors/coaches is vital as a supplement to a strong and effective FTO program. Often, these "unofficial" roles are as influential, if not more so, on new staff as the FTO. For this reason, I suggest you look at developing an official "mentor" program for new staff that focuses on such aspects as character, professionalism, and the career goals of the new staff person. These are facets of a staff person's development that the FTO cannot really address.

Not only does a formalized mentorship program give the new employee some additional bolstering, but it provides administration with another perspective on the new employee and the opportunity to address problem solving both on and off the job.

One significant advantage to a formalized mentorship program is that it offers the opportunity for staff from every level to "step up to the plate." During my 35 years in corrections, one constant from veteran staff has been their never-ending complaints about the entering staff. A mentorship program gives the veterans the chance to stop complaining and grumbling about the new staff and, instead, to actually do something about their concerns.

A group of concerned staff from DPSCS has developed a mentorship program in conjunction with a fraternization program that is being incorporated into the CELTP. Many are expressing an interest in being trained as mentors and those who have already been involved in the program have found this involvement to be wonderfully rewarding.

A mentorship program works most effectively as a volunteer duty with strong support from agency administration and can be developed with little to no cost. It is a chance for line staff to shine, and, at the same time, it offers management staff the chance to recognize the members of their staff who are willing to reach out. Such a program works best if management staff become involved at the grassroots level and actually serve as mentors themselves. It sets a positive example and shows staff that management views training as a priority. While some oversight of the program is needed to ensure that staff members are fulfilling their obligations, it is not a cumbersome responsibility. Overall there is much to gain and very little to lose in establishing a mentorship program.

Keep your eyes open for some upcoming FTO classes at PCTC as well as for the development of a mentorship program. These classes will be geared toward Training-for-Trainers and will provide students with a manual and some of the significant basics. If you have questions, suggestions, and/or feedback, please contact Jane Sachs at 410-875-3568 or jssachs@dpscs.state.md.us.

WANTED! GOVERNOR'S CRIME PREVENTION AWARDS NOMINATIONS

Announcements concerning the 2011 Governor's Crime Prevention Awards Program were sent to all Maryland law enforcement and correctional agencies in April. We encourage all agencies to nominate individuals and programs whom they feel meet the criteria for the Governor's Awards. The six nomination categories include the following: Law Enforcement Agencies; Law Enforcement/Correctional Officers; Community Groups, Organizations, and Individual Citizens; Proactive Crime Prevention Programs in Maryland; Achievers' Award (for the performance of residential and or commercial security surveys); and Outstanding Comprehensive Community-Based Anti-Crime Strategies in Maryland.

The deadline for submission of nominations for the 2011 Governor's Crime Prevention Awards Program is July 31, 2011. If you have any questions regarding the Awards Program or need to have an application packet mailed or e-mailed to you, please call the MCCPI Office at 410-875-3425 or 1-800-303-8802. We encourage you to review the packet and submit any nominations you feel meet the criteria. Final selection of recipients will be made in August by a special Awards Review Subcommittee, which is composed of members who are regionally representative of Maryland. RESIDENTIAL AND COMMERCIAL
CRIME PREVENTION TRAINING

MCCPI offers one Five-Day Commercial and three Four-Day Residential Crime Prevention Training Programs per year. These are held at locations throughout Maryland in order to allow maximum participation by law enforcement agencies.

The final 2011 Residential Training is being planned for the fall of 2011, possibly in early October. After the dates for this are confirmed, this information will be posted on www.mdle.net. Both the Residential and the Commercial programs are approved for in-service credits through the Police Training Commission.

Throughout the year, MCCPI will also offer Two-Day Residential and/or Commercial Crime Prevention Training Programs, upon request, to departments with 15 or more students. These trainings can be requested on an individual basis by contacting the MCCPI Office.

For more information on MCCPI's Residential and Commercial programs, call Leo French at 410-875-3427.

CURRENT TRENDS CRIME PREVENTION TRAINING PROGRAM

MCCPI is currently offering the sixth of its Current Trends training programs, "Current Trends VI: What's Happening Now....." This training will provide an in-depth look at Outlaw Motorcycle Gangs; Street Gang Update; School Security; Security at Large Venues; Gang Intervention and Prevention; Drug Update; and Crime Prevention Update.

The last session will take place on June 22-23, 2011 at the Allegany College of Maryland in Cumberland, and this information is available on www.mdle.net. The first day of the training (June 22) is open to sworn law enforcement officers only. Current Trends VI has been approved for 12.5 hours of police in-service credits.

The first session of Current Trends VII is scheduled to take place on October 27-28, 2011 at the Public Safety Education and Training Center in Sykesville. Look for more information on www.mdle.net as the date for the October training gets closer.

For more information on the Current Trends training, contact Bruce Lohr at 410-875-3422 or blohr@dpscs.state.md.us.

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT

The National Association of Town Watch (NATW) will once again sponsor National Night Out Against Crime throughout the country. Now in its 28th year, this event will take place on Tuesday, August 2, 2011. This is a national crime prevention demonstration during which residents are asked to turn on outdoor lights and spend time outside with their neighbors and local law enforcement. It is designed to heighten crime and drug prevention awareness, generate support for and participation in local anti-crime programs, strengthen neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships, and send a message to criminals, letting them know that neighborhoods are organized and fighting back.

Last year's National Night Out campaign involved citizens, law enforcement agencies, civic groups, businesses, neighborhood organizations and local officials from over 15,000 communities from all 50 states, U.S. territories, Canadian cities, and military bases worldwide. In all, over 37 million people participated in National Night Out in 2010. Many communities throughout Maryland have planned activities such as crime prevention fairs, block parties, cookouts, walks, and McGruff appearances for the 2011 celebration.

As their website states, "National Night Out has proven to be an effective, inexpensive, and enjoyable program to promote neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships in our fight for a safer nation."

MCCPI encourages jurisdictions to participate in National Night Out. For registration material, contact the National Association of Town Watch at 1-800-NITE-OUT or visit their web site at www.nationaltownwatch.org.

MARYLAND CRIME PREVENTION ASSOCIATION

The Maryland Crime Prevention Association (MCPA) is a collaboration of crime prevention practitioners throughout the state. Members include police, sheriffs, correctional and security professionals, business people and community leaders. Its mission is to facilitate the promotion and advancement of crime prevention information and activities in Maryland. The Association is committed to effective and efficient crime prevention programming throughout the state.

Plans are underway for MCPA's Annual Conference, to be held on October 11-14, 2011 at the Paradise Plaza Inn in Ocean City, MD. Topics will be announced. Conference registration is $99.00

For information on membership, other training programs available, the Annual Conference, etc., visit the MCPA website at www.mdcrimeprevention.org or Bruce Lohr at 410-875-3422 or blorh@dpscs.state.md.us.

MARYLAND STATE TRIAD NETWORK

"Triad" is a grassroots concept of partnerships that brings police departments, sheriffs' offices, criminal justice practitioners, senior volunteer groups, and senior service providers together for the sole purpose of identifying ways to reduce the criminal victimization of the elderly.

The Maryland State Triad Network meets quarterly in Annapolis, and meetings are open to the public. Meetings feature a guest speaker as well as an opportunity for attendee information exchange. Remaining network meetings for 2011 are set for September 7 and a December meeting, date to be determined. The Triad/S.A.L.T. (Seniors and Law Enforcement Together) also sponsor an Annual Conference, usually held in the fall.

If you would like to know more about the efforts of Triad, contact the MCCPI Office at 410-875-3425.

MCCPI STEERING COMMITTEE

The MCCPI Steering Committee consists of representatives of government and business and community organizations with active involvement in the promotion and implementation of crime prevention programs and activities. Meetings are held five times per year and member agencies must be willing to commit the equivalent of at least one day per month to Steering Committee business. Members are expected to undertake activities that support MCCPI while helping their individual agency or organization develop or enhance crime prevention programming.

If your agency is interested in joining the Steering Committee or would like further information on it, contact the MCCPI Office at 410-875-3421.

FOCUS ON PAST GOVERNOR'S CRIME PREVENTION AWARDS RECIPIENTS

Each year the State of Maryland honors law enforcement agencies, officers, citizens, and programs for their contributions to the furtherance of crime prevention programming in Maryland. MCCPI would like to take the opportunity to highlight some of these efforts through Training Notes. In this issue, we are featuring the Arm Yourself With Knowledge Program, which was nominated for the award by the Howard County Police Department.

The Howard County Police Department's Community Outreach Senior Liaison and Howard County Office of Consumer Affairs Arm Yourself with Knowledge program was designed to educate mobile and homebound senior citizens about various frauds and scams to which they are targeted. Senior citizens continue to be a rapidly increasing segment of the population, and con artists believe that they are vulnerable and more susceptible to their tricks. With so many technological advances, criminals who target the elderly are often located outside the U.S. and encroach on their lives through computers, cell phones, and the U.S. mail. The program addresses these issues and provides senior citizens with the tools to prevent themselves from falling victim to fraud.

Initially, the Arm Yourself with Knowledge presentations were being offered three times annually in the twelve senior centers of Howard County. However, with the growing success of the program, the presentations are now offered to assisted senior living facilities, community groups, church groups, and senior recreation groups and have been embraced by numerous Howard County governmental agencies.

The program covers the following six topics: Internet Safety, Home Repair Scams, Telemarketing Fraud, Identity Theft, Foreign Lotteries, and Shop Smart. Each topic is taught by lecture, visual aids, and question and answer sessions, and topics are updated monthly to include the most current fraud trends.

PFC Holly Burnham from the Howard County Police Department and Ms. Lila Boor from the Office of Consumer Affairs were the lead persons responsible for the program's implementation. This was accomplished through the collaboration of the Howard County Police Department, Office on Aging, and Office of Consumer Affairs. It was advertised through the police department in several newspapers, at Howard County Senior Centers, the Columbia Association, the Horizon Foundation, the Howard County Council, Howard County global email, at the 50 EXPO, on local TV shows, and at numerous presentations given throughout the county.

Funding for the materials and handouts was supplied by the Horizon Foundation's S.T.A.P.L.E. grant (Seniors Taking Action through Prevention with Law Enforcement) and the Office of Consumer Affairs.

The positive results of the program's implementation are being felt throughout the County. The raised awareness has prompted seniors to contact both the Police Department and Office of Consumer Affairs and report suspicious telemarketing calls, e-mails, and offers received in the mail. In response, the Howard County government has issued press releases that alert all citizens to the current scams. Seniors have been educated to take a closer look at their lifestyles and become aware of how they can lessen their chances of becoming victims of a crime.

MCCPI commends all those involved with this program. For more information on it, contact the Howard County Police Department at 410-313-3200 or 410-313-6089.

The Institute will continue to feature other awards recipients in future editions of Training Notes. If you are interested in learning more about their accomplishments or more about the Governor's Crime Prevention Awards Program, call the MCCPI Office at 410-875-3425.

Training Notes is available online at <http://mdle.net/tnotes.htm>

Community Supervision Training Unit

by Gene Farmer, Administrator

The Community Supervision Training Unit provides a comprehensive curriculum of training courses to ensure that the Division of Parole and Probation (DPP) maintain a highly-trained workforce that is prepared to accomplish their mission. These courses are offered to DPP employees at all stages of their careers. Training is focused on developing the knowledge, skills, and competencies required at each level and is designed and delivered using adult learning principles. The curriculum is updated regularly to ensure that it remains aligned with the organization's goals. In December 2010, this training team became part of the Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commissions.

The courses listed in our current catalogue are open to any individual who would like to attend. ### Community Supervision Unit – Entry Level Training Program

The Community Supervision Unit's Entry Level Training Program is designed to prepare newly-hired Parole and Probation Agents and Drinking Driver Monitors to perform the office, field, and court duties assigned to them by the Division of Parole and Probation. Parole and Probation Field Supervisors I Ray Sheaffer, Roslyn Rice, and Mark Waranch and Administrator I Donna Lee, Health Services Instructor, bring over 80 years of combined criminal justice experience to the Academy. Curriculum, presented in an adult learning atmosphere, covers evidence-based practices which are recognized internationally as effective tools in preventing recidivism. The most recent Agent academy began on February 9 and concluded on April 8, 2011. At the present time, there are plans to conduct two more Agent academies during 2011.

The current academy saw the inception of online training, which allowed the students to spend more time in their assigned offices with their mentors and supervisors, thus enhancing their adjustment to the DPP workplace.

CERTIFICATION UNIT UPDATE

by Sally Reier, Certification Administrator

Most people know that 4-1-1 is the number to call when seeking telephone information. What they may not know is that certification@pctc.state.md.us is the all purpose email address to use when searching for information about certification.

The Certification Unit frequently receives inquiries concerning an officer's training and/or certification status. These requests can now be submitted to the Certification Unit's designated email which is monitored throughout the workday. In many cases, information can be provided to the requestor electronically via email within 1-2 business days as opposed to phoning in a request and awaiting receipt of a mailed response.

With the end of calendar year 2010 and the beginning of a new training year, please be reminded that all training records must be submitted in an electronic format that can be imported into our certification database. While January 31 is the deadline by which agencies are required to collect and submit annual in-service training, it also marks the beginning of the annual process for Certification Unit staff.

All training information is imported and verified to ensure that officers have met the established training standards and minimum in-service hours, including firearms qualifications, if applicable. Once training information has been received and imported, staff then begins the process of generating non-compliance reports and issuing certification cards for those officers who are in compliance with training standards.

When submitting electronic control device training, please be mindful that in addition to submitting this training to the Certification Unit to import for in-service credit, it must also be reported to the Firearms Training staff on a separate Excel spreadsheet. For information about this requirement, you may contact the Firearms Training staff at 410-552-6300.

MPCTC is moving toward electronic submission (paperless) of all training records. If your agency would like to receive a log-in to the new online system that allows for the electronic submission of training records, please note that log-in credentials are only sent to agency heads (Chief, Sheriff, Warden, etc). This allows agency heads to control the distribution of these credentials in a manner that is appropriate for their respective agencies. To receive your username/password, send the email address of your agency head to Dan Setzer in our Technology Support Services Unit at: dsetzer@dpscs.state.md.us or call him at 410- 875-3466. Mr. Setzer will transmit the log-in to your agency head and at the same time notify you that it has been sent. You will also receive a short User Guide to the online reporting system as an email attachment.

VIDEO-CONFERENCING

We want to remind you about the availability of video-based teleconferencing at the Public Safety Education and Training Center.

We have equipped one of our conference rooms with a state-of-the-art video conferencing system.

This system will allow you to:

- have live, real-time, face-to-face conversations with persons at up to three separate locations;
- record your meeting on VHS tape;
- view documents, displays, and other materials; and
- scan the conference room 180° to bring attendees on-camera.

Video-based teleconferencing can be set up with any user who has an ISDN connection. MPCTC is able to bring these services to you at NO COST other than our costs for the actual line time of your teleconference.

If you or your staff would be interested in a free demonstration of these resources, please contact: Chris Esser, Electronics Technician, at 410-875-3550 or Joanne Cunningham, Registrar, at 410-875-3402.
